Sun. Dec. 9th to Sun. Jan. 13th

Ladies of the Lake Quilt Exhibit at the Rahr West Art Museum, 610 N. 8th St. Manitowoc

January 9, 2019

9-1

Sit and Sew at Ebenezer.

1 PM

Heidi Parkes lecture and trunk show, "My Quilts and How I Got There". Heidi will share some of her art background and the way she approaches an idea for making a quilt through many examples of her quilts.

Sign up for February UFO Workshop with Terri K. This is a Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from 9 am - 4 pm. Cost is $5/day. You can sign up for one or two days or all three days.

Quilt Retreat at Cedar Valley Education and Retreat Center in West Bend. No cooking, just friends and quilting. Registration form is available online at sheboyganquiltguild.org/documents. Sign up due date is always one month prior to the retreat date and should be sent to Diane Liebenthal. Our quilt retreat and UFO workshop is a good time to work on the quilt show raffle items and baby quilts.

Sign up to sew baby quilts or knit baby hats at the Sheboygan Falls Bank and Trust March 14th & 15th. The March Raffle Basket. Three tickets for $1.00. Stop at the Raffle table for a chance to win.

There is a new Mystery Quilt for 2019! Fabric requirements and Clue #1 is available and we know many of you will enjoy this mystery. Special motivating clue for the 2019 quilt show....there are a few stars in this quilt.

The Fat Quarter Raffle has returned for 2019. It is a fun way to build up your stash or get some inspiration for a new project. It is simple and easy. You do not even have to go to the store to buy a fat quarter. You can make your own from leftovers or from your stash. For each fat quarter you bring in, you will receive one ticket (a maximum of 3 tickets per person). If your number is drawn, you receive all the fat quarters that were brought in that month. Each month there will be a fat quarter theme.

The fabric theme for January is Tropicals and Batiks. Take your thoughts away from snow and cold to balmy breezes in prints and/or colors of the tropics. Feeling warmer yet?

New information regarding the 2019 Quilt Show will be shared. Be the first to know!

Reminder! If there is a workshop, retreat, bus trip or UFO that works into your schedule, do not delay to sign up. Space is limited and many of our speakers who run the workshops have a limit on the number of attendees. Registration fee is due upon receipt of your registration papers and is not refundable but is transferrable to another member. You are responsible to find your replacement if there is no wait list. Costs and materials required vary for each workshop.

SNOW CANCELLATION POLICY: If Sheboygan Schools are canceled on the day of a SCQG Meeting, then the guild meeting is also canceled. However, if snow conditions become severe through the day, members will be notified by email by 3:00 pm on the day of the meeting. We ask that everyone assist with notifying our members of a cancellation. Members without email should be contacted by another Guild Member. Thank you.

For all those who are interested, hours at Camo Quilt are now 9am to 3pm every Tues., Wed. and Sat. All of the rotary cutters, mats, rulers, sewing machines, supplies and ironing boards are available to use. There is the most room for more volunteers on Saturdays. Everyone can come and go as they like and stay to help out as long as you are able. The fidget mats are sewn mostly on the 3rd Sat of the month. On that Saturday, you can work on the patriotic quilts or the fidget mats. Mary Koczan, a guild member, has volunteered to be the contact and resource person for the fidget mats. Information regarding the Camo Quilt Project can be found online at <http://camoquiltproject.com> or you can contact Linda Wieck, the founder of Camo Quilts and a guild member.

Sign up for The Sewing Basket's email list to find their open sewing dates or at Magpie's if our UFO dates do not fit into your schedule.
